December 21, 1802.

WALTER HOG, Accountant in Edinburgh, Trustee upon the sequestrated Estates of Messrs. Francis Garbett and Company, late of Carron Wharf, and of Mr. Charles Gascoigne, one of the Partners of that Company, hereby intimates to the Creditors on these sequestrated Estates, that he is to submit to their Consideration, at the Annual General Meeting of the Creditors, to be held in the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, upon the 10th Day of January 1803, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Proposal which has been made to him by Mr. James Gibson, Writer to the Signet, Agent for John Minyer, of London, Esq; Executor of the deceased William Pocock, of Newgate-Street, London, Esq; for compromising a Question, which has long depended in the Court of Session, respecting the Validity of an Assignment of Nine Shares of the Stock in Cannon Company, standing in Mr Gascoigne's Name, granted by him, while Factor for the first Trustees on the first sequestrated Estates, to the said William Pocock, in Security of a Debt due to him, by Francis Garbett and Company.

The Purport of Mr. M'ayer's Proposal is, that on his receiving One-Half of the Balance of the Debt remaining due to him, as on the 1st of April last, (which Half he states at 1736l. 6s. 3d.) and being ranked on the Funds of Francis Garbett and Company, and Charles Gascoigne for the other Half, so as to draw therefore the Dividends hereafter to be declared, he will immediately convey to the Trustee, for Behoof of the Creditors, all Right which he has to the said Nine Shares of Cannon Company's Stock, and to the Dividends thereon remaining unpaid, since 31st December 1776 inclusive, and which now amount to a large Sum.

The Trustee therefore requests a full Attendance of the Creditors, by themselves or their Doers, properly authorized, at the General Meeting, on the 10th January 1803, in order to determine whether Mr. M'ayer's Proposal ought to be acceded to or rejected. Such Creditors as do not then attend personally, or by their Proxies, will be held as acquiescing in whatever Resolution the Meeting shall adopt upon said Proposal.

The Purport of Mr. Minyer's Proposal is, that on his receiving One-Half of the Balance of the Debt remaining due to him, as on the 1st of April last, (which Half he states at 1736l. 6s. 3d.) and being ranked on the Funds of Francis Garbett and Company, and Charles Gascoigne for the other Half, so as to draw therefore the Dividends hereafter to be declared, he will immediately convey to the Trustee, for Behoof of the Creditors, all Right which he has to the said Nine Shares of Carron Company's Stock, and to the Dividends thereon remaining unpaid, since 31st December 1776 inclusive, and which now amount to a large Sum.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

If any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Judiciary or the Circuits there.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

St. James's, March 2, 1803.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting), with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, approach the Throne with the most lively and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Sensible, as we are, of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, ruling, as we are persuaded your Majesty does, not more over the Persons than in the Hearts of a free and grateful People,—allied as your august Person is to the Safety of our glorious Constitution in Church and State,—and essential as your Majesty's invaluable Life is to the vital Interests of the Empire at large, and of every Individual living under its wise, wholesome, and equal Laws, we are unable, in Terms adequate to our Feelings, to express our Abhorrence at the nefarious and diabolical Machinations which were deliberately planned to overwhelm them all, by one fatal Blow, in Horror and Destruction.

Such Sentiments of Indignation must glow in the Hearts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects throughout the United Kingdom; and we entreat your Majesty to believe, that your loyal Citizens of London are sensibly alive to the mighty Mischief which threatened them; and that their affectionate Attachment and ardent Zeal will ever, if possible, strengthen in Proportion to any Danger to which your sacred Person may be exposed.

We trust, however, that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projectors of so foul a Deed will, while it warns the Traitor of his Punishment, convince the loyal of the Protection our revered Constitution affords, and effectually secure your Majesty and the United Kingdom, over which the Goodness and Mercy of Providence has placed and preserved you, from any such guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the general Tranquillity.

Long may the Almighty guard the Throne of this Realm from the Assaults of Violence, and the insidious Attacks of domestic Treason; and long may your Majesty, in your Person and Family, enjoy that Quiet and Happiness in governing which are so intimately interwoven with the dearest Possessions of the free and happy People who obey.

Signed by Order of Court,

HENRY WOODTHORPE.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address; and I accept with particular Satisfaction the affectionate Congratulations of My faithful City of London on the signal Protection of Divine Providence vouchsafed to Me; and upon our common Deliverance from a desperate and wicked Attempt to destroy our invaluable Constitution, and therewith the Laws, Liberties, and Happiness of My People.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Richard Welsh and James Alexander, Esqrs. Sheriffs.

St. James's, March 2, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with every Sentiment of grateful Attachment to your Person and Government at this Crisis, when the Existence of a traitorous and horrid Conspiracy, for the Destruction of both, has been so recently ascertained by due Course of Law. We utterly abhor and detest those Principles by which any Persons of whatever Description have been influenced to form treasonable Designs against your Majesty, and the Constitution of our Country in Church and State. Long Experience has taught us to revere you, Sir! as the faithful Guardian of our civil and religious Liberties : the Protector of the best and dearest Interests of Society ; it is therefore no less our Inclination than it is our Duty and Interest, to implore Divine Providence for the Preservation of your valuable Life, to use all the Means in our Power to defend it, and to support your Government against all its Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said City of Exeter, this Twenty-eighth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder, and Sir Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Bart. and James Buller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of the City of Rochester, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED by a deep Sense of the Divine Goodness to us and to all your faithful Subjects, displayed in its Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person from the recent most wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of your ancient City of Rochester, humbly presume to offer our Expression of unfeigned Abhorrence and Detestation of a Design equally and desperately criminal in its Means and in its End.

We trust that the awful Sentence of the Law, under which its depraved Contrivers have suffered, together with the Duty and Loyalty of an affectionate and united Nation, will effectually deter others from engaging in any such guilty Courses, by proving to them that their Attempts are not only criminal but impracticable, and can only recoil in Ruin on themselves instead of reaching a Sovereign enthroned in the Hearts of his People, and a Constitution revered by them as their patrimonial Inheritance of Liberty, and farther endeared by having enabled them, as a firm and tried Anchor, to ride in Safety through the Storms in which so great a Part of Europe has been shipwrecked.

Though we are confident the Number is very small of those desperate Persons who could be induced to meditate Plans at once so guilty and so hopeless, we beg to assure your Majesty that it is no less our Wish than our Duty to exert our utmost Vigilance in the Prevention and Detection of any treasonable or seditious Designs against your Majesty's Person, or the Constitution of our Country, being convinced that all we hold dear, our Liberties, Properties, and Lives, depend on their Preservation.

Given under our Common-Seal this First Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir William Sidney Smith, Knt. &c. Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeesses of the Borough of Leicester, desire to approach your Royal Person with the most affectionate and fervent Congratulations upon your Majesty's late Deliverance from a daring and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life and Government. We cannot but lament that your Majesty's Safety, which is most dear to every British Heart, has been so frequently assailed by Violence and by Stratagem. Whilst we yield our Tribute of Praise to the Vigilance and Prudence of your Majesty's Ministers, which have been so successfully exercised in detecting and subduing the Designs of Traitors, we humbly assure your Majesty that our most devout Thanksgivings are offered to that Almighty Ruler, who, by many signal Providences, has manifested his peculiar Favour in the Preservation of your Person and Dominions. It is our most earnest Prayer to Him, by whom Kings reign, that the powerful Hand which has guided your Majesty securely through Circumstances of unparalleled Danger, may continue to defeat every hostile Attempt : nor can we doubt, from our late Experience of the Divine Goodness, that the same gracious Protection will still be extended to your Majesty, and to your Royal House.

Given under our Common-Seal the Twenty-eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three.

J. Slater, Mayor.

[Presented by Samuel Smith, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

And whereas His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Plunder and Robbery of the said Goods, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Persons concerned therein, (except the Person or Persons who actually broke open and robbed the said Trunks,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PELHAM.

The humble Address of the Recorder, Bailiffs, Citizens, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Bailiffs, Citizens, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield, highly sensible of the numerous Blessings which we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty, unanimously beg Leave to address your Majesty on your Majesty's recent providential Deliverance from a most daring and flagitious Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person.

While we view with Indignation and Abhorrence the traitorous Machinations of wicked Conspirators, we cannot but feel an additional Impulse of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, of Obedience to the Laws, and of Reverence and Attachment to the free and excellent Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we should be guilty of Impiety to the Almighty, and of Ingratitude to your Majesty, were we to withhold the just Tribute of Thanksgiving for so many Instances of Deliverance from Danger to which the Person of your Majesty has been exposed, and which Divine Providence has, in Mercy, averted from this Nation.

And we pray that the same Almighty Power may continue to grant to your Majesty the utmost Enjoyment of those public and private Virtues, which, for the Good of your People, your Majesty so eminently possesses; and that the Period may be far distant when your Majesty may be called to close a Reign, glorious, virtuous, and happy.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Glasgow, most humbly approach your Throne with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Escape which your Majesty has made from the late wicked and diabolical Conspiracy which was formed against your Life and Government. We have peculiar Satisfaction in reflecting, that, through the Whole of your benign and auspicious Reign, we have had Cause to adore the Wisdom and Goodness of Almighty God in protecting your sacred Person alike from the Attacks of the Insane, and the Daggers of Traitors and Assassins.

That your Majesty and your Descendants, to the latest Ages, may continue to dispense to an affectionate People the Blessings which we have enjoyed under your mild and parental Government, is our most earnest and fervent Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in the Name and Presence, and by Appointment, of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, in Council assembled, at Glasgow, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by Lau. Craigie, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late dangerous Conspiracy, aimed against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and the Government and Constitution of the Country.

Impressed as we are with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and excellent Government, directed at all Times to the Maintenance and Support of every Measure essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects, we reflect with no less Astonishment than Horror that Persons should be found who could for a Moment entertain Designs so hostile to their Sovereign and their Country.

As faithful and loyal Subjects, affectionately attached to our King and Constitution, we cannot but admire the Wisdom and Justice of the Law, and of your Majesty's Councils, in having made such wicked and dangerous Traitors the Instruments of public Example and Determent to others; but as all human Means may fall short of defeating the Machinations of designing Men, when resolutely and impiously bent on Mischief, we devoutly implore, that the same watchful Hand of the Almighty, which has so often, and so signally, preserved your Majesty amidst Dangers equally alarming and threatening, may continue its Protection and Care over a Life so intimately connected with the dearest Rights and Interests, and Happiness of us all. And under the same kind Providence may this and every other Country under your Majesty's Dominion be for ever effectually defended against those vile Principles, and their attendant Calamities, which its Enemies have been plotting, and insidiously endeavouring, to introduce, to the Subversion of our present happy Establishment.

Given under our Common-Seal this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Francis Burton and John Atkins Wright, Esqrs. Representatives for the City of Oxford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations of our Countrymen for the happy Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person from the late treasonable Conspiracy.

We earnestly and humbly hope that Providence will mercifully continue its tutelary Care over your Majesty's Life and Health, and with them confirm in your Royal Breast the like Disposition, Resolution, and Activity for the Maintenance of our Constitution, civil and religious, as have so long secured the Applause, and rivetted the affectionate Attachment, of a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common-Seal this Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your antient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, ever eager to evince our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Escape of your Majesty from a vile and horrid Conspiracy.

We greatly lament that at this Period there should be found any of our Countrymen so wanting in Gratitude and Affection to the best of Sovereigns, or so deficient in Veneration for our most glorious Constitution, as to endeavour to disseminate those detestable Principles, which have proved so adverse to the Happiness of Mankind, so destructive of all true Liberty.

Deeply, however, impressed with your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, and feeling confident in the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, we cherish the Hope that, through the Goodness of Divine Providence, your Majesty will, in Tranquillity and Happiness, long be enabled to extend the Blessings of your Reign to a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said Borough, the Eighth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

James Gint, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington and J. Smith, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, beg Permission to offer your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the recent Escape of your Majesty from a most foul and diabolical Conspiracy, aimed at the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Person, as well as at the Subversion of the British Constitution.

Fully impressed with the Magnitude of the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we view with inexpressible Horror and Concern the Existence in the British Dominions of the smallest Remains of those Principles which have caused so much Misery in Europe; we trust, however, that the just Punishment which, under the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, has awaited the traitorous Conspirators, will call back to Loyalty the few of your Majesty's Subjects who, by Plots and Machinations, may have been seduced from their Duty and Allegiance.

Be assured, most gracious Sovereign, of our invariable Attachment to your Majesty, as well as to that Constitution under which it is our Pride and Happiness to live, and which, we trust, will be handed down to our Posterity unchanged and unimpaired.

That the Almighty will be pleased to shower down every Blessing upon your Majesty, and long preserve to your People the Life of their much-beloved and gracious Sovereign, are the unceasing Prayers of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the said Borough.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington and J. Smith, Esq.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Dean and Canons of the Free Chapel of St. George, within the Castle of Windsor, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of sincere and devout Gratitude to God for the Protection recently afforded to your Majesty's Person.

The indignant Horror which this late Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life has excited in the Breast of every honest Man, is mixed with Grief and Shame that the Conspirators should have been found among the Subjects of this free and happy Country.

It is not, Sir, the Language of Adulation, it is a plain Truth, that your Majesty's Virtues, public and private, have secured to you in the fullest Measure the Love and Veneration of your People. Your Majesty has no Enemy among them, but the Enemy of the Constitution in Church and State: And we have full Confidence that, whilst your Majesty's paternal Care watches over the Safety of this venerable Fabric, it will always be found sufficiently strong to furnish to your Majesty a Bulwark, impregnable alike to foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors.

The numberless Advantages which we daily experience under the Shade of your Majesty's mild and virtuous Government suggest to us Motives of Interest as well as Duty for imploring a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life. And whilst we humbly supplicate this Blessing for ourselves, we are not less solicitous for every Event that may contribute to the Happiness of your Royal Person, the Welfare of your illustrious Family, the Splendor of your Throne, and the Prosperity of your Empire.

[Presented by the Dean and Canons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to join the general Voice of our Country in offering our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, formed against your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we express our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty Power which hath shielded your Majesty from the Danger which threatened you, we cannot forbear to lament that any Portion of your Majesty's Subjects should have been so deluded by the insidious Arts of evil-designing Persons, and rendered so blind to their own Happiness, as to project their Country's Ruin, by meditating a Blow against the Life of a Monarch who hath so long reigned in the Hearts of a grateful People.

May the same Divine Goodness, which hath brought to Light this horrid Conspiracy, long, very long, preserve your Majesty's sacred Life; on which, we are deeply sensible, so essentially depend the Happiness of your Subjects, and the Safety, Honor, and Welfare of your Dominions.

Given under our Common-Seal this First Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

W. W. Bolton, Mayor.

St. James's, March 15, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in your Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, in Common-Hall assembled, to congratulate your Majesty with the most heartfelt Sincerity on the Detection and (we hope) total Extinction of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy aimed at the Overturn of our Government, and the Destruction of our excellent and revered Constitution, by a deliberate and diabolical Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Providence and the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers have combined to defeat this detestable Enterprize; and we trust that the just and exemplary Punishment inflicted on the Ringleaders of it will effectually operate to prevent any future Attempt of so atrocious a Nature; and that your Majesty will continue long, very long, to reign over your free and happy People.

Given under our Common-Seal at our Guildhall, this Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by John Harrison, Esq; M. P. for Thetford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Right Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, being truly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, that, by the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Council, aided by Divine Providence, the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies which so lately threatened to undermine the Constitution have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempts to assassinate your Royal Person have been defeated.

In viewing with Indignation and Abhorrence the traitorous Machinations of wicked Conspirators, we cannot but feel an additional Impulse of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of Reverence and Attachment to our most excellent Constitution.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened, and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said City, this Tenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere and cordial Congratulations on the recent Detection and Defeat of a most unnatural Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the civil and religious Establishment of this Kingdom.

The signal Protection which, in this as well as former Instances, the good Providence of God hath vouchsafed to your Majesty, your Royal House, and to the People of this Realm, justly demands our devoutest Praise and Thanksgiving.

Anxious as we are, and ever must be, in these Seats of Learning, to inculcate the sound Principles of true Religion as the best and surest Basis of Fidelity, Loyalty, and every moral and political Duty, we cannot but reflect with peculiar Detesta-tion and Abhorrence on that consummate Depravity of Heart, which, in Defiance of every divine and human Obligation, could have formed Designs so malignant and atrocious, even amidst all the Advantages of your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and under the fullest Enjoyment of our free and happy Constitution.

We are earnestly desirous of renewing to your Majesty our Assurances of faithful and unalterable Attachment: Nor shall we ever cease to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God that he would preserve and prolong a Life so important, as that of your Majesty, to the dearest Interests of your People; and that, under your Majesty and your Royal House, he would be graciously pleased to continue to our latest Posterity the invaluable Blessings we now enjoy in the Exercise of our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with peculiar Satisfaction your affectionate Congratulations on this fresh Instance of the Divine Protection, which I, in common with My People, have experienced in the Detection and Defeat of a most desperate and atrocious Design to involve our established Constitution, together with the great and manifold Blessings we derive from it, in one general Destruction. It is upon your constant and faithful Exertions to instil into the rising Generation true Principles of Religion and Virtue, that the Permanency of these Blessings must greatly depend; and in these, your laudable Endeavours, you may confidently rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THIS Day the Reverend Doctor Sumner, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge; Doctor Pearce, Doctor Jowett, Doctor Ingle, the Reverend Mr. Burrell, Mr. Broderick, the Reverend Mr. Sumpter, the Reverend Mr. Walker, being the Delegates appointed by the University; attended by Mr. Beverley, Esquire Beadle; accompanied by Lord Percy, Lord Clonmel, Lord

John Fitzroy, Lord Burghersh, Lord Primrose, Lord Royston, Lord Pollington, Lord Henry Moore, Lord Headley, Residents in the University; and attended by the Earl of Euston, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the University; Earl Westmoreland, Earl Spencer, Lord Ellenborough, Lord Alvanley, Lord Brownlow, Lord Ossiltou, Lord Leslie, Lord Hinchinbrook, Lord St. Helens; Bishops of Ely, Bath and Wells, Chichester, Chester, Rochester, and Bristol; Right Honorable Sir William Wynn, the Attorney and Solicitor General, the Secretary at War, the Honorable Mr. Cuffe, the Honorable Mr. Dundas, the Honorable and Reverend Mr. Wellesley; Doctors Davis, (Provost of Eton,) Heath, Rhudde, Raine, Wilgrefs, Bell, Jenkin, Annesley, (Master of Downing College,) Fisher, Territt, Leycester, and Adams; and about Two Hundred other Noblemen and Gentlemen, who were educated at the University, waited upon the King, and presented the following most dutiful and loyal Address:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious, desperate, and determined Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person. It is, however, with the deepest Concern, and with the utmost Detestation we reflect, that these wicked Machinations, originating in the basest Principles, were directed to the Subversion of every Thing, which ought to have been held most valuable and dear to all Subjects, faithful to the true Interests of their Country, to their Constitution, and their King.

After a Life uniformly devoted to our general Welfare and Happiness, it might have been expected that no Man would have proved himself so hardened, so daring in traitorous Projects, as to aim at the Destruction of the august and beloved Father of his People, most justly endeared to us by every sacred Tie. But since, from some late Instances, it is unhappily too evident, that, under the most artful Disguise, the worst Intentions have been concealed, every Individual must readily concur in his steady and earnest Endeavours to avert such alarming Dangers; and, while he consults for the Security of his Sovereign, to promote the surest Means for his own Safety and the universal Good. Actuated by these Motives, among the most faithful of your Subjects, shall we of this Body, to whose Care is intrusted the important Charge, never cease to inculcate into the Minds of our Youth every sound Maxim of Loyalty and Obedience. And, as we have ever hitherto been guided by these Principles, so we may farther hope to render a Service acceptable to your Majesty, by adhering in future to the same Rule for our Conduct. Thus, we trust will our invariable Attachment to our King, our honest Zeal in the Support of the Constitution, united with the Maintenance of Religion and the Advancement of Literature and Science, be best proved by our Exertions in impressing on all, true Ideas of the inestimable Advantages, which we now enjoy.

May that Providence, who most seasonably hath warded off a dark and detestable Conspiracy, still guide the Minds of your prudent, vigilant, and active Counsellors to the timely Detection of such treasonable and horrid Designs. May your Majesty long experience from all your Subjects, the most cordial Proofs of Affection, Fidelity, and Loyalty. And may they ever show themselves able and willing to support on every Occasion, their lawful Government, the Purity of their Religion, the Prosperity of their Country, and the Security of the best of Sovereigns.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Return you My Thanks for your affectionate Congratulations upon this fresh Instance of the Divine Protection which has been vouchsafed to us; and I receive with the highest Satisfaction your Expression of the Horror and Detestation, which so wicked and unnatural a Design to destroy our inseparable and common Interests, has so justly excited in your Minds.

You may rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection in Support of your uniform and laudable Exertions to promote in the rising Generation the Principles of sound Learning and true Religion.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Dublin, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon your late signal Escape from the Devices of a Band of wicked Conspirators.

When we contemplate your Majesty's Royal Virtues, we must feel, in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the utmost Abhorrence at this recent and detestable Conspiracy: But whilst our Indignation is so justly excited against the Authors and Abettors of it, we cannot but admire this fresh Instance of the Interposition of Divine Providence in protecting the best of Kings from the meditated Attack of the Traitor and Assassin.

For the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life in Health and Happiness, we, with all your faithful Subjects, do most fervently pray; convinced that, in obtaining that Blessing, we shall enjoy the best Security for all the Advantages of civil and religious Liberty ensured to us by our glorious Constitution.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed, the Eighth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We most humbly return Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchsafed to us by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we most devoutly implore a Continuance of Safety and Protection to your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare of these Kingdoms so much depends.

Given under our Common-Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three. Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, unite in the general Voice of National Joy and Congratulation at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the malignant Designs of the late traitorous Conspiracy levelled against the Safety of your Royal Person, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution. We contemplate with equal Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity, and return the most fervent Thanks to that overruling Providence, which influenced and directed your Majesty's Councils to the Detection of so foul a Treason. May that same Guardian Providence still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Life; and may you long reign the King, the Friend, and the Father of a free, loyal, and united People.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said City the Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Machinations of designing Traitors, whose sole Aim was the Destruction of our happy Constitution, Religion, and Laws.

We humbly return Thanks for the Mercy vouchsafed in the Discovery of one of the most detestable Plots that could be devised, and by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we earnestly implore the Almighty to continue his Care and Protection over your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare and Happiness of the Empire at large so materially depend.

Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by Major-General Grosvenor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave most heartily to congratulate your Majesty, on your signal and providential Escape from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy, which aimed at the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and the Subversion, by Force, of our free, happy, and inestimable Constitution.

We cannot possibly contemplate the public Conduct and private Virtues of your Majesty, without feeling the utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Design against a Life, endeared to us by the Experience of the many Blessings we have pre-eminently enjoyed during the Reign of a Sovereign, whose Government has been marked by the greatest Mildness, and constant Attention to the public Welfare; and we are confident that those wicked and traitorous Machinations have justly excited the utmost Indignation, and their happy and timely Discovery and Defeat, have diffused the greatest Joy through every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

For ourselves, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government, and to the Constitution, as by Law established; and to express our ardent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, and in future be undisturbed by any Conspiracies or Attempts against your Majesty and our excellent Constitution.

[Presented by Henry Protheroe, jun. Esq; one of the Sheriffs, attended by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge, and Evan Baillie, Esq; Representatives for the City in Parliament.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, permit us humbly to assure your Majesty of the Continuance of our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and that we are determined to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, firm and unchanged, the happy Constitution of these Kingdoms.

That your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life may long, very long, be preserved as a signal Blessing to your People and Kingdoms, and that all your Subjects may learn to imitate that illustrious Example both of public and private Virtue so conspicuously set before them by your Majesty, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave humbly to present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations upon the timely and providential Discovery and Detection of the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and upon the Facility as well as Certainty with which, by the Vigilance and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers, and the able and upright Administration of Justice in the Execution of the Laws, the nefarious Plans and Purposes of insatuated and desperate Individuals can be frustrated, and they themselves consigned to ignominious and merited Punishment.

Whatever has a Tendency to subvert our established Laws, and to introduce Anarchy, whereby your Majesty's precious Life might be endangered, and the Blessings of Peace and social Order interrupted, we ever did and ever will hold in Detestation and Abhorrence.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occasion to renew and repeat our Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our inviolable Attachment to your august Family, and to that inestimable Constitution and Form of Government under which we have the Happiness to live.

Given under our Common-Seal the Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach the Throne of your Majesty, with our humble, but sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's recent most fortunate Escape from an atrocious and desperate Conspiracy; we contemplate, with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, the Enormity of the Design as well as the Circumstances of aggravated and unexampled Wickedness that marked its projected Execution; we truly regret that there should be found, among those who daily partake of the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, Persons sufficiently depraved to imagine and concert so execrable an Attempt; and in common with all your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, we unite in offering up our grateful Thanks to the Divine Providence who has defeated and brought to light those atrocious Designs which had for their Object to involve, with the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, the Subversion of our Laws, the Overthrow of our Liberties, and the utter Annihilation of our happy Constitution.

That the sacred Person of your Majesty may ever be preserved both from the Attacks of open Enemies, and the secret Machinations of Traitors, that, secure in the Affections of your People, you may long remain the Guardian and Protector of their Laws and Liberties, and continue to exhibit a bright and illustrious Example of public and private Virtue, is the ardent and unceasing Prayer of the loyal Corporation of this ancient and honorable City.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council-Chamber, this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the recent atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your most sacred Person and illustrious Family.

We contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation a Design pregnant with such extensive Mischief, and which aimed at the Subversion of our most excellent Constitution, and therewith the Laws, Liberties, and Happiness which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign.

At the same Time we acknowledge, with the most profound Gratitude, the merciful Interposition of Almighty God in having thus signally frustrated such wicked and unnatural Designs, and in having protected a Life endeared to us by the paternal Care and Affection, and by the anxious Interest and Concern, which your Majesty has invariably manifested for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People.

Animated with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our determined Resolution to support and maintain inviolate our free and happy Constitution.

We feel and acknowledge, with humble Gratitude, the special Favor of Divine Providence, which has preserved to this United Kingdom, a Sovereign, who has made our Happiness the chief Object of his Reign, and whose Life has afforded to his Subjects an illustrious Example of every Virtue.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANIMATED by the deepest Sense of the Divine Mercy manifested in the Defeat of the late atrocious Conspiracy, we your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, presume to offer our most fervent Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Escape.

Sensible as we are of the Blessings enjoyed during a long and mild Reign, we feel unfeigned Detestation of those wicked Plans, which threatened the sacred Life of our beloved Monarch, and the Existence of our invaluable Constitution.

We are too well convinced of the incalculable Value of that Life to the best Interests of the United Kingdom not to join in the general Indignation roused against the Projectors of so foul a Treason, and we hasten to add to the Voice of our Fellow-Subjects our Declarations of the most sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

May your Majesty continue to reign in the Hearts of Britons, and may that Almighty Power which hath hitherto protected you through so many Dangers and Difficulties, vouchsafe to hear our Prayers for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Preservation of our glorious Constitution.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, do offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the discovering and frustrating one of the most abominable Plots which the Wickedness of misguided Individuals could imagine against the sacred Life of your Majesty and our glorious Constitution; and do assure your Majesty that we conceive this mischievous Plot was equally destructive of all practical, moral, and civil Liberty; and that we are fully sensible, that, in the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, and of your august Family, the dearest Interests of this Kingdom are deeply concerned.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, humbly approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Person and Government, and with Gratitude to God for the late Preservation of your Majesty, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom, from the desperate Designs of a Conspiracy, which, by the Vigilance of a wise and active Administration, has been most providentially detected and defeated.

When we reflect on the Privileges enjoyed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects under your Majesty's benign and mild Reign, we are filled with Astonishment and Indignation that there should have existed an Individual in the Kingdom who should have harboured even a Thought injurious to the best of Kings, and to a Constitution which stands unrivalled throughout the World.

We cannot but hope that the well-timed Interposition of our impartial Laws will bring to a true Sense of their Duty and Allegiance those misguided Men (if any such remain) who may have listened to sedition and ill-disposed Persons, whose Designs pointed to the Overthrow of Church and State.

May it please the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty under his gracious Protection, to be a Blessing and an Example to a free, united, and faithful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, assembled at the Common-Hall of the said County, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of a wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

To express to your Majesty our Horror and Detestation of so atrocious a Design to destroy a free and happy Constitution, by an Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life, a Life rendered invaluable to us by your Majesty's Virtues in these Times of Difficulty and Danger, when we labour under the Effects of those flagitious Principles, which are alike subversive of the Duties of private Life, of legitimate Authority, of public Order, and Civil Liberty.

That whilst we trust that the Punishment which has been inflicted upon the Conspirators will have the Effect of preventing traitorous Machinations in future, we acknowledge with the utmost Thankfulness and Humility the Interposition of Almighty God, who in detecting and defeating those wicked Designs has afforded your Majesty a fresh Instance of that All powerful Protection upon which your Majesty has invariably placed your Reliance.

To assure your Majesty that it is our fixed Resolution, as it is our sacred Duty, to defend and protect your Majesty's Person, and to second your Majesty's uniform Endeavours to maintain and preserve that excellent Constitution under which this Kingdom has so long flourished, and to transmit it unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Detection of those Traitors who have lately suffered the just and necessary Punishment of their Crimes.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, the Goodness of Providence in again preserving your Majesty's sacred and invaluable Life from the Hand of the Assassin; and we contemplate with Horror and Indignation the persevering Maliginity of a few desperate and disappointed Men, whose Objects are not more destructive of all social Order and Happiness, than the Means they would employ are base, sanguinary, and flagitious.

We, however, feel the greatest Consolation in observing that every Attempt against your Majesty's Person and Government has uniformly called for the most unequivocal Demonstrations of Loyalty and Affection from all Orders of your Majesty's Subjects; and we fervently pray that, if the Spirit from whence these atrocious Designs originated, be not wholly extinguished, the experienced Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, aided by the zealous Co-operation of the loyal Part of the Community, may effectually deter the most inveterate Enemies of the Constitution from a Renewal of such Attempts.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hertford, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person, and to express our common Joy at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the wicked and malicious Designs of your Enemies. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are not more sensible of the many Miseries and Misfortunes which would have been entailed upon this Country, if those treasonable, murderous and revolutionary Plans had been carried into Execution than we are of the Blessings and Advantages we at present enjoy under your Majesty's mild and protective Government.

We hope and trust that the just and awful Sentence of the Law which has brought the Conspirators as they deserved, to an ignominious Death, will convince others that the same Fate awaits them if they persevere longer in the same wicked Plans against the Constitution of our Country in Church and State. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to protect and defend your Royal Person, alike in War or in Peace against open or secret Enemies. Should any foreign Force again dare to act in Hostility to your Majesty, we are ready to rally round your Throne, to avenge your Wrongs, or to bury ourselves in one Grave with the Honor of your Crown and Independence of these Kingdoms.

Should desperate Traitors again dare to conspire against your Royal Person, your Family, or Government, we shall exert our utmost Vigilance to discover, defeat, and discomfit them, and to drag them to that speedy and condign Punishment which the Wisdom and Justice of the Law inflicts upon such heinous Offenders.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to offer our sincere and warm Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a true Sense of the Blessings we derive from the British Constitution, so justly an Object of Admiration and Envy to the World, and by which Liberty and Property are secured and guarded to all, we have seen with Horror and Indignation a Plot laid for its Subversion and Overthrow by some desperate and insatuated Wretches, who, insensible of the Blessings we enjoy, wickedly and audaciously conspired against their Sovereign and his Government, and unmoved by the recent dreadful Scenes exhibited in a neighbouring Country, intended to introduce Anarchy, with all the dreadful Miseries attending it, into this happy Kingdom. We are comforted, however, by the Reflection that their wicked Machinations have been timely detected, and the Traitors themselves brought to condign Punishment.

We most fervently pray Almighty God that your Majesty may long reign beloved and revered by your People as their Father and their Sovereign; and that every traitorous Design against your precious Life, and our excellent Constitution, may meet with similar Detection and Punishment.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to renew our often-repeated Assurances that we will defend your Majesty and your Government with our Lives and Fortunes against all your Enemies; and that we will exert ourselves to the utmost of our Ability to bring to Light, and defeat, any traitorous Attempt to disturb the public Peace, or to excite Sedition among your Majesty's Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's signal and providential Escape from that wicked and detestable Conspiracy so lately projected against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and for the Subversion of that happy Constitution which for Ages has secured to us the Blessings of Freedom; admiring those aimable Virtues which adorn the sacred Character of your Majesty, we are impelled to express our most ardent Wishes that your Majesty (undisturbed by the diabolical Machinations of Traitors,) may long-reign over a free, happy, and prosperous People. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Sentiments of Loyalty to the Person of your Majesty, and Reverence for those Laws by which the Perpetrators of the late horrid Conspiracy have been brought to condign and exemplary Punishment, a Punishment which we earnestly hope and trust will operate as a powerful Example to others, and check the Extension of those destructive Principles, which are subversive of all social Order and good Government; and it is our most earnest Prayer, that our invaluable Constitution, of which your Majesty is the Head, may be transmitted to the latest Posterity unchanged and unimpaired.

William Spurrier, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIR,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, humbly approach your Royal Presence with their unalterable Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, increasing always as your Majesty's Claims to universal Gratitude and Praise increase.

Great and perfect as is our Joy on your Majesty's Escape from the diabolical Attempts of maddening Conspirators, it cannot be unattended with Indignation and Regret that a Country, ever celebrated for its Valour, Honor, and Humanity, should give Birth to Wretches fit only to wander through inhospitable Deserts, and mingle with Beasts of Prey!

Watching with impatient Solicitude the Progress of our grossly violated Laws against the late convicted Traitors, we admired the solemn Candour and Impartiality of a Trial which occupied the Attention of all Europe, and interested almost the whole known World; and we cannot avoid expressing our entire Satisfaction and perfect Approbation of the ultimate Issue of an Inquisition so indispensably necessary and important for the Safety of a most beloved Monarch, to the Prosperity of your Dominions, and to the future Prospects of Freedom of distant Nations.

Such repeated Tokens of an Omnipotent Protector of your Royal Person and illustrious Family, must give fresh Dignity to the sacred Character you bear, must animate our fondest Hope, and sanctify our earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may long live and reign the Pride and Happiness of your People.

Frederick Breton, late Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, and the Parts adjacent, in the Town-Hall of the said Borough assembled, humbly beg Leave, with one Accord, to congratulate your Majesty on the late providential Discovery and Defeat of a dark, wicked, and desperate Conspiracy aimed at your Majesty's Life, the Destruction of your august Family, and the Overthrow of our most invaluable Constitution and Government, as by Law established, the Pride and Glory of every true Englishman, and the Admiration of surrounding Nations, for the Preservation and Maintenance whereof, and of your sacred Majesty's Person, with Hearts full of Affection and Gratitude we offer up our Thanks to the Almighty, and are ready to risk all that is dear and valuable to us in this Life.

At the same Time we cannot forbear from expressing our warmest Acknowledgments to your Majesty's Ministers, and those intrusted with the Administration of the Laws, for the mild, temperate, and constitutional Course they have pursued, in bringing to Justice the principal Leaders and Abettors of so nefarious and diabolical a Conspiracy.

We humbly assure your Majesty, (notwithstanding these vile Traitors held some of their Meetings for the above horrid Purpose in this Vicinity,) that nowhere in your Majesty's United Kingdom does there exist more Loyalty, Veneration, and Attachment to your sacred Person, and your illustrious Family and Government, than in the Hearts of those who now ardently congratulate your Majesty on the present Occasion.

May the supreme Dispenser of all Things guard and protect your Majesty's sacred Person from all Dangers, and your Majesty long continue to reign with Felicity over a loyal, dutiful, and affectionate People; and may the Sceptre (as a Blessing to Posterity) continue to latest Generations in your Majesty's illustrious House.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough.

May it please your Majesty,

GRACIOUSLY to accept the humble Expressions of the Joy your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Borough and Town of Marlborough, feel on the complete Failure of a traitorous Attempt to destroy at one Blow your People's Happiness, which has ever been your Majesty's anxious and unremitting Care.

Turning with the most abhorrent Detestation from Treason, though humbled to find any British Breast open to so foul a Crime, we lift up thankful Hearts that your Majesty's invaluable Life is still Heaven's Boon to your Dominions, and a Pledge for the Preservation of our Religion and Laws. May the sacred Persons of your Majesty, and of our gracious Queen, with your whole Royal Family, ever be protected by Divine Providence, whose Goodness, we earnestly hope, will permit us to live and die under your Majesty's most gracious and paternal Rule.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of both Provinces of that Part of the United Kingdom called England.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of both Provinces of that Part of your Majesty's United Kingdom called England, beg Permission to approach your Royal Presence to express our humble and most cordial Congratulations upon the providential Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

In every Plot which (we recollect with Horror) has been formed against your Majesty's invaluable Life, we are persuaded the Peace and Tranquillity which your Kingdom enjoys under your Majesty's auspicious Government, has been the ultimate Object of the Traitor's Malice. In the Preservation of your Majesty, the good Providence of God hath graciously preserved to us our happy Constitution in Church and State, of which your Majesty is, under God himself, the surest Support and Stay.

We trust the earnest Prayers will still be heard, which we cease not to offer daily to the Throne of Mercy, for the long Continuation of your Majesty's Life, and for the Safety of your Person, and for the Maintenance of your Royal Descendants on the Throne of this Kingdom, to be the Guardians of its Religion and its Laws for endless Generations.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with Assurances of unfeigned Joy and heartfelt Satisfaction at your Majesty's late Escape from the furious Malice of a Band of daring and desperate Traitors.

With inexpressible Horror we reflect on the Danger to which your Majesty has been exposed, and on the atrocious Wickedness of those who could resolve to raise their impious Hands against a Prince who has such powerful Claims on the Affection and Gratitude, as well as on the Duty, of his People.

In this new and signal Instance of your Majesty's Preservation, we recognize, with grateful Devotion, the continued Favour of that gracious Being, who has so often interposed for your Deliverance from the most awful and imminent Dangers; and we most earnestly implore that Being still to watch over and preserve your invaluable Life, to defend and prosper your Government, and to prolong, for many Years, a Reign which has been distinguished by an unexampled Display of every Virtue, public and private, in the Person of the Sovereign, and which has proved one of the choicest Blessings bestowed by Providence on this highly-favoured Nation.

We cannot quit your Majesty's Royal Presence without availing ourselves of this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that, in the Discharge of our Functions as Magistrates, we will exert our utmost Endeavours to discover and frustrate all seditious Conspiracies, and to guard a Life so deservedly dear to all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Justices of the Peace for the Liberty of your Majesty's Tower of London, in Session assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

If abundant Evidence had not rendered it impossible to deny the Fact, it could hardly have been conceived that your Majesty, distinguished as your Majesty has ever been for Clemency, for making the Laws of this Realm the Rule of your Government, and for Affection towards the Land which gave your Majesty Birth, could have had an Enemy, or the Constitution a Foe.

Convinced, as we are, that traitorous Principles have been industriously disseminated amongst the People, we shall pay the most unremitting Attention to preserve the Peace of the District which your Majesty has been pleased to confide to our Care, to prevent the Formation of Plots, and to check the Progress of Conspiracies.

Under these Impressions of Allegiance and Duty, we request Permission to assure your Majesty of our loyal Attachment; and we do most earnestly beseech Almighty God to continue his Protection to your Majesty, and to shield your Majesty's Royal House against either the insidious Artifices of secret Disaffection, or the daring Outrage of avowed Treason.

vidential Discovery and Overthrow of the atrocious Designs of wicked and desperate Men:

And while we acknowledge, with the most lively Gratitude, this benign and signal Interposition of Providence, in shielding the sacred Person of your Majesty, and our Laws and Liberties, from the Effects of their traitorous Intentions, to offer up our ardent Prayers, that our glorious Constitution may be protected against every Foreign and Domestic Enemy; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign the common Father of a free, a happy, and united People.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our Assurances, that, to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, our Attachment remains firm and invariable; and that it is our earnest Prayer that the same kind Providence that has hitherto shielded your sacred Person, and preserved our happy Constitution and Laws, may continue thus to bless and unite this Kingdom to the latest Posterity.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the numerous Blessings we have enjoyed under our mild and excellent Constitution since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, we heard with Astonishment and Horror of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

From Saturday March 19, to Tuesday March 22, 1803.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THE following Addressees have been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the recent Deliverance of your Royal Person from the Hands of avowed Violence, and your Kingdom from the dread Effects of atrocious Conspiracy.

We cannot but revere these Blessings, as the continued Security of our dearest Interests, and deplore with just Indignation, the virulent Malignity of corrupted Hearts.

May the supreme Protection ever avert the Dangers of your sacred Person, and reveal, for just Judgment, the secret Sources of concerted Evils. Long may your Majesty thus safely rejoice in the Happiness of that Land, whose Sovereign's Ambition is the Welfare of his People, who conciliates their Affections by the Piety of Example, and reposes his Confidence in the Strength of Salvation.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, the Twenty-eighth Day of February, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, for ourselves, and in Name of the Community of the City, with grateful Thanks to Almighty God, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the providential Discovery of the Designs of the late Traitors against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government. While we lament that Persons should be found, who, after experiencing the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, and contemplating the Virtues of your private Character, are capable of harbouring a Thought against your sacred Life, it must be a Source of real Satisfaction to your Majesty to reflect, that such Designs are never entertained but by Men of desperate and abandoned Characters:

and we hope that the late most just and necessary Examples will secure your Majesty from all secret Conspiracies; and that your Majesty's Virtues, and the Firmness of your Government, will ever prove insuperable Obstacles to their Success.

We further beg Leave to return our grateful Thanks to your Majesty for that Decision of Mind, which induced your Majesty to waive the Gratification of your own merciful Disposition for the Safety and Happiness of your People.

Against the open Attacks of your Enemies foreign and domestic, we pledge ourselves and our Fellow-Citizens, in common with the Rest of your faithful People, to defend your Person and Family with our Lives and Fortunes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled, impressed with the deepest Gratitude to the Great Disposer of Events, and with Thankfulness to the watchful Care of your Majesty's Ministers, humbly beg Leave to be amongst the first of our Fellow-Subjects in congratulating your Majesty upon your late providential Escape from those wicked and traitorous Plots so lately devised against your sacred Person, (and a Life of such Moment to the Peace and Repose of Europe, and to the best and dearest Interests of the British Empire,) as also for the Subversion of our Constitution, which is the Pride and Boast of Britons, and the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Believe, Royal Sir, that you have not any Subjects more loyal and attached to you than the Ciizens of Lincoln; and allow us to unite in most cordial Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may henceforth be peaceful, serene, and happy, undisturbed by Plots and Conspiracies of any Kind whatsoever; and that your Majesty, in full Enjoyment of every Felicity, may long live, as you are, the public and private Ornament of your Kingdoms, and equally honored and revered as the King and Father of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

Given at the Guildhall of the said City, under our Common-Seal, the Third Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

T. Smith, Mayor.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Perth, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the late daring Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Reflecting on the Happiness and Security we in common with every Individual of the British Empire enjoy, under your Majesty's mild and just Administration of our most excellent Constitution, and calling to Mind the many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, we are struck with Abhorrence and Detestation at the Conduct of a few deluded and desperate Men, who would rob us of these invaluable Blessings.

With heartfelt Gratitude we acknowledge the Goodness of Providence in early detecting and defeating their unnatural Conspiracy, and we trust that the Punishment which has followed, a Punishment so justly due to their Crimes, will not be wanting in Effect, but that it will warn the Traitor of his Danger, and thus be the Means of securing Your Majesty, and these happy Kingdoms, from all such treasonable and wicked Attempts.

That Almighty God may continue to bless and to protect your Majesty is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Perth.

Signed in the Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, by John Caw, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, at all Times desirous to manifest those Sentiments of dutiful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government that have ever animated your loyal County of Buckingham, feel ourselves particularly called upon to express our sincere Acknowledgements to Almighty God, and our anxious Congratulations to your Majesty, on the Detection of that traitorous Conspiracy formed against our beloved Sovereign, endeared to us by our Constitution, and by the Blessings which this Kingdom has so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

The whole Tenor of your Majesty's Reign, distinguished by your Justice, your Lenity, your paternal Love to your People, and your steady Attachment to our invaluable Constitution, calls upon us for the strongest Expressions of our Detestation and Abhorrence of those execrable Principles, that alone could suggest a Crime, rendered more horrible by the Consideration of your Majesty's public and private Virtues. And we ardently pray for the Continuance of the same gracious Providence that has so often and so signally interposed for the Protection of a Life so valuable to us, from every personal Consideration of dutiful Affection to your Majesty, and from our zealous Attachment to our excellent Constitution.

Signed on Behalf of the County this Fourteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Jos. Franklin, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt and sincere Congratulations on the timely Discovery of those traitorous Designs, which had for their Object the Destruction of your Royal Person, and, with that, the Overthrow of every Thing valuable to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects.

Our Abhorrence of those Designs can only be equalled by our Gratitude to a protecting Providence, who, in his Mercy to these Nations, has signally preserved your Majesty's valuable Life, that it may continue to diffuse on us those Blessings, which, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, as it has long been our Happiness to enjoy, so it is our fervent Prayer we may long derive from the same Source.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Town-Clerk, Common Councilmen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Preservation, by the Detection and Failure of a horrid Conspiracy which was formed to destroy the sacred Life of a beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of the Realm. While we reflect with Horror and Indignation on the Diabolical Machinations of those Traitors, whose Hearts could conceive the Perpetration of a Crime of such Enormity; we cannot but offer our Thanksgiving to the Almighty, who has thus wonderfully, by his Interposition, guarded and protected your Majesty's sacred Person against the assassinating Hand of the Conspirator.

Feeling the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government, constantly and uniformly directed to the Care and Welfare of your People, and admiring those amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we rest confident that the Number of Disaffected in your Majesty's Dominions is small, and that the Spirit of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which has ever distinguished your Subjects, continues firm and unabated. We hope that the Example of those, whose Lives have been so justly forfeited to the Vengeance of the Law, may be the Means of checking the Extension of those destructive Principles to which Europe has been so long a Prey; Principles which are subversive of all social Order and good Government, and, where they have reigned, have been marked only by the Misery and Wretchedness of the People galling under their baneful Influence. We, who in this favored Nation have been protected from their direful Effects, and who enjoy the Blessings of the happiest Constitution, and of Laws best calculated for the Happiness of a People in the World, cannot but view with Pain and Concern an Attempt to bereave us of those inestimable Privileges, and to introduce among us a System of Anarchy and Disorder. Happily for your Majesty's Subjects, the Designs of Conspiracy have, by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, been frustrated; and we rely with Confidence, that that Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your gracious Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch renowned for every Virtue, and whose chief Care has been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Northampton, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with the most lively and heartfelt Emotions of Joy and Exultation at the timely Discovery and recent Defeat of the late traitorous and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We cannot sufficiently express our deep and awful Sense of the Goodness of Divine Providence to these highly-favoured Kingdoms, in again rescuing from Destruction your Majesty's sacred and august Person, which, together with our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, must otherwise have been alike sacrificed to lawless Conspiracy and open Violence. Nor can we sufficiently express the Abhorrence and Detestation we feel at the Conduct of Traitors so vile and execrable; and may the awful, but just and salutary, Example of such detested Conspirators have, as we trust it will, the happy Effect of warning the Traitor of his Punishment, and assuring the loyal of the Protection he receives under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, founded upon a Constitution which is not only the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations, but the best Security for a full Enjoyment of every Blessing desirable to Man.

We earnestly and devoutly supplicate the great Disposer of all Events that your Majesty may be long preserved from every Danger, may long continue to reign over a loyal, affectionate, and grateful People, and finally transmit unimpaired, to the latest Period of Posterity, those inestimable Blessings experienced under your Royal Person and illustrious House.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hedon, in the County of York, in Common-Hall assembled, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

We ardently pray that God Almighty, of his infinite Goodness and Wisdom, will continue to preserve your Majesty from all Dangers, and grant you a long and happy Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and lively Congratulations on the providential Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and horrid Machinations against your Majesty's Royal Person.

Strongly impressed with Sentiments of the most heartfelt Gratitude for the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's lenient and paternal Government, we are unable, in adequate Terms, to express our Detestation of the late diabolical Conspiracy, planned with Deliberation to destroy a Life so invaluable to your Subjects, and so essential to secure to them the Blessings of our inestimable Constitution, which by their detestable Schemes was to have been completely overthrown.

We trust that the late firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Wretches concerned in so foul a Conspiracy, while it holds forth a proper Terror to every other abominable Traitor, will convince your Majesty's loyal Subjects of the Protection our revered Constitution affords effectually to preserve your Majesty and your United Kingdom from any such guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the public Tranquillity.

Long may the Almighty guard your sacred Person from the Assaults of Violence, and the insidious Attempts of domestic Traitors; and grant your Majesty, in future, every Quiet and undisturbed Happiness in governing your loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, ever anxious to testify our zealous Attachment and unfeigned Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family, respectfully approach the Throne, to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations upon your late providential Escape from the desperate Plot of wicked and ill-designing Men.

Whilst we behold with equal Honor and Astonishment the late traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Royal Person and Government, we cannot but express our Sense of the active Exertions which have been adopted for bringing to Light and punishing the Parties concerned in it; sensible, as we are, that the Success of so horrid an Attempt would, by undermining our excellent Constitution, have destroyed that Happiness your Subjects have so long enjoyed under the mildest and best of Governments.

With Hearts impressed with the most lively Sense of Gratitude to the Supreme Being, humbly, yet earnestly, we implore, that the same Providence which has so frequently protected, may ever continue to shield your Royal Person from secret Conspiracy and open Violence, and long render your Majesty's Reign over a free and grateful People happy and prosperous.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough and Town of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to present our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations upon your Majesty's late happy and providential Escape from the most wicked Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life and Government which ever disgraced the Annals of this Country.

That the most unwearied and kind Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects so continually excited by your Majesty for their Interest and on their Behalf, should not have had the Effect of endearing the Hearts of every Individual in these Realms, we do most truly lament.

We are confident, nevertheless, that the wicked Intentions formed by those Conspirators who have so justly suffered the Law, cannot have spread to any great Extent.

It will, however, be our Duty to use our utmost Exertions in preventing any such wicked Designs in future. And your Majesty may rest assured of our utmost Diligence in the execution of that Duty, for, on your Majesty we depend for the Preservation of every Thing which is dear to us.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common-Council assembled, are anxious to express our Abhorrence of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, which, under Divine Providence, and the Wisdom and Energy of our Laws, hath been happily frustrated.

At the same Time that we congratulate your Majesty on the Detection of so dangerous a Conspiracy, we lament, that notwithstanding the Blessings which our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks enjoy under your Majesty's Government, it should be in the Power of wicked and desperate Men, to work on the Minds of the Ignorant and Unwary, and incite them to Acts which endanger the Safety of your Royal Person, so intimately connected with the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects.

We humbly hope that the dutiful and loyal Subjects of your Majesty's Dominions, will be awakened to the Sense of Danger manifested by such Attempts, and impressed with that Sentiment, be zealous and watchful for the Protection of your Majesty's Person and Royal Family, and the Support of our glorious Constitution.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our unanimous Abhorrence of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person, together with our heartfelt Gratitude for their Discovery and Defeat. Intimately and, we trust, indissolubly are interwoven the Welfare of this United Kingdom, and the protected Rights of every Individual thereof, with the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and the uniminterrupted Succession of your august Family to the Throne. We cannot but be confident that your faithful Subjects feel, and will, with one Voice, declare their Conviction, that, in defending the latter, they guard their own dearest Rights; and that on the Safety of their constitutional Governor is dependent every Blessing valuable to the governed. We entreat your Majesty to believe, that, in such Sentiments, your loyal Corporation of Leeds heartily concur, and they humbly request your gracious Acceptance of their Expressions of personal Attachment, and of their grateful Sense of the many Blessings which, under your Majesty's paternal Care, they have long and uniformly enjoyed.

May the Almighty continue to your Majesty that heavenly Protection which he hath lately been pleased signally to vouchsafe, and in the peaceful and prosperous Prolongation of your Majesty's Reign may he ensure the Happiness, and receive the Thankgivings of a free and favoured People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations upon the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late atrocious Conspiracy of desperate and bloody-minded Men against your sacred Person and illustrious Family, and against the Constitution and Government of this Kingdom.

Whilst we look with Abhorrence at the nefarious and diabolical Machinations which were deliberately planned to overwhelm, by one fatal Blow, all Government and Order, we feel an increased Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty, ruling, as we are persuaded you do, not more over the Persons than in the Hearts of a free and grateful People.

We sincerely lament that the late traitorous Conspirators should have expressed a Dependence upon, and a Hope of Assistance from, deluded Accomplices in this Town and Neighbourhood, yet we feel confident that the Number of such abandoned Miscreants is not great, nor their Condition formidable. And to those whom the fatal Principles of Impiety have not rendered, like their late desperate Leader, callous to all the Feelings of Religion, we trull the unhappy Fate of him and his Associates will suggest this timely Caution, that the great God of Order, of Virtue, and of Peace, keeps a watchful Eye over the deepell and most disguised Designs of wicked Men.

Permit us, Sir, to offer a fervent Wish that the same gracious Providence, which hath signally guarded the Throne you so illustriously fill from the Assaults of foreign Violence, and the insidious Attacks of domestic Treason, will continue its Protection; and, at the same Time, that it secures to your Majesty's Person and Family the safe and quiet Possession of the Sceptre of your United Kingdom, it will preserve to us and our Posterity the Enjoyment of a Freedom and Happiness, known only to British Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AFTER returning our sincere Thanks to the Great Disposer of Events, for so often shielding your Majesty against the Attempts of daring Assassins, we are more particularly called upon at this Time to thank Him for His providential Care in frustrating and bringing to light the late foul Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person, which, if their diabolical Scheme had been effected, would not only have deprived all your Subjects of the United Kingdom, of a Sovereign we esteem and regard, but also of a Constitution that is the Admiration of all the World, and under which we enjoy all the Blessings of true Liberty.

May your Majesty long continue to reign in the Hearts of your Subjects, safe, under the All-protecting Arm of that Power, whom, like another Daniel, you have so constantly served.

We assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and Affection, and fervently implore the Goodness of Divine Providence for the Continuance of your Majesty's Life, and of those inestimable Blessings which the mild Administration of the Laws, and the happy Constitution of this Country, afford to all your People.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley, penetrated with the deepest Abhorrence of the recent wicked and daring Conspiracy, formed by domestic Traitors against your Majesty's sacred Life, the various Members of your Royal House, and the excellently-constituted Government of this Realm, do thus humbly offer our most cordial and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty on the timely Frustration of such complicated and atrocious Iniquity.

May that Almighty Being by whose superintending Goodness these and other direful Attempts of a similar Nature have been mercifully defeated, continue to be your Majesty's Safeguard and Shield, blessing the Whole of your illustrious Family with Health, with Happiness, and with Glory! And may the Hearts of all your Subjects henceforth be united in Sentiments of filial Veneration for your Majesty, their public Father, in patriotic Wishes for the Peace, and in unremitted Zeal for the Prosperity of the British Empire!

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy and providential Discovery and Discomfiture of the late wicked and atrocious Conspiracy to overturn the Laws and Constitution of this Realm, and which also had in View the diabolical Design to destroy your Majesty's most invaluable Life.

Whilst we venerate the Laws of our happy Constitution which secure to us, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, the highest Measure of Civil Liberty, the Protection of our Persons, the free Exercise of our Religion, and the peaceable Enjoyment of our Property; we cannot sufficiently applaud the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, in bringing those daring Enemies and Traitors to their Country, to speedy justice, and condign Punishment.

Nor do we congratulate your Majesty only on this joyful Occasion, but all our Fellow-Subjects also, from a Persuasion, that every Attempt that is levelled at your Person, is in Intention equally hostile to the Constitution of our Country.

Our fervent Prayer is, that the same Superintending Providence may continue to be, as it has hitherto been, a Shield and Defence to you against all your Enemies, whether avowed or secret. Inviolably attached as we feel to our free and happy Constitution, and justly endeared as your Majesty's Person is to all your Subjects, by that uniform Tenor of unceasing Kindness, Beneficence, public Virtue, domestic Example, and religious Devotion, which has marked and distinguished your Majesty's Reign, we cannot but reflect with Horror and Detestation on an Attempt so atrocious as that which aimed at the Destruction of that Constitution itself by the dearest Sacrifice it could first make; that of your Majesty's sacred Life.

With Hearts unfeignedly thankful to Almighty God for his great Mercies vouchsafed unto us, by preserving us from from so calamitous a Blow, we humbly offer up our fervent Prayers for the Continuance of the Divine Protection to your Majesty, and that he will further us with his Help in the zealous and determined Resolution we feel, to defend and protect your Majesty's Person, and to transmit to Posterity unimpaired, the peculiar Blessing bestowed on this Nation, a Constitution of Freedom and Justice.

Whilst we contemplate with the most lively Emotions of Gratitude the various and unparalleled Blessings which, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, we have uninterruptedly enjoyed during the long Course of your Majesty's parental Government, for which we have been so peculiarly indebted to the personal Virtues of a beloved Monarch, our Feelings of Indignation and Horror are almost lost in that of Astonishment, that one single Individual should have been found capable of conceiving so monstrous an Act of Treason as that, the seasonable Discovery of which has awakened all the loyal Sympathies of your Majesty's attached and devoted People.

Long may your Majesty remain seated on a Throne which has for so many Years shed unexampled Happiness over every Part of your Majesty's Dominions! Prosperous may be the Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and pregnant with every Description of Events that may afford Satisfaction and Comfort to your Royal Bosom! That your Majesty may long reign over the Affections of a loyal and happy People, and that we, together with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, may continue to experience the Blessings of your Majesty's benign and mild Reign, is the fervent Wish and Prayer of us in common with your Majesty's other dutiful and loyal Subjects.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled, humbly intreat Permission to offer to your Majesty our sincerest and warmest Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late impious Designs against your sacred Person; to assure your Majesty that the most affectionate of your Subjects cannot surpass us in faithful and zealous Attachment to your Majesty, and to your just and equitable Government. And that amidst the general Effusions of national Joy, our Hearts overflow with Gratitude to that Gracious God who has preserved your Majesty, and defeated the wicked and traitorous Designs that were formed against your invaluable Life, and which, if they had succeeded, must have involved your Kingdom in Confusion, and Misery.

May your Majesty, protected by the same Almighty Power, continue for a long Succession of Years, to reign over us free from such desperate and atrocious Attempts, and to enjoy the supreme Happiness of conveying Blessings to all your Subjects, while the Providence and Wisdom displayed in your Councils derive Force and Efficacy, and ensure a willing Obedience from the benign Influence of your Majesty's amiable Virtues and mild Government, and may you, Sir, receive in Return, a never-failing Tribute of Affection from a People thoroughly sensible how intimately their dearest Interests are connected with your Majesty's personal Safety.

Given under our Common Seal, this Eighth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Guildhall, in Bewdley aforesaid.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Borough of Sanquhar, in the County of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the truly fortunate Discovery and final Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Convinced, as we are, of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, happily experiencing that we live under the Protection of wise, wholesome, and equal Laws, we are altogether at a Loss to express, in proper Terms, our Detestation and Abhorrence at the deliberate and wicked Machinations which were in contemplation to overwhelm every Thing dear to these Kingdoms in Horror and Destruction.

We trust, however, that the Fate of those concerned in this diabolical Plot, will prove a Warning to others who may entertain such wicked Designs, and will establish the Well-affected in the firm Belief of the Blessings they enjoy under our revered Constitution, and your Majesty's wife Administration.

Long may your Majesty live in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects, and may the Almighty guard your Throne against every wicked Design.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Dundee.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Dundee, beg Leave to present to our most gracious Sovereign, the most sincere and cordial Congratulations of dutiful and loyal Subjects, on the Detection of the late execrable and traitorous Conspiracy, which had for its Object the Assassination of the best of Kings, and the Destruction of our glorious Constitution, and Liberties sacred and civil.

While we lament that the Age and Country in which we live, should be stained with so foul and shocking a Treason, we are penetrated with Gratitude to that Almighty Being who presides over the Fate of Kings and Kingdoms, who mercifully interposed to discover and disappoint the horrid Purposes of these detestable Traitors.

May that same beneficent Providence continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and long preserve your valuable Life for a Blessing to these Realms.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of Council. John Guild, Provost.

Truly grateful for the Blessings we have enjoyed during your Majesty's paternal Reign, and deeply sensible of the Value and Importance of the Continuance of a Life devoted to the Prosperity of a free and loyal People, we join in the universal Abhorrence and Detestation of every Attempt to disturb the private Peace of a beloved Sovereign, and, with it, the public Tranquillity of his Dominions.

We tender our unfeigned Assurances of Affection and Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government; and we implore the supreme Disposer of all to grant to your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, and to continue the Crown of these Realms to your illustrious House to the latest Posterity.

Whilst we humbly offer our Thanksgivings to the supreme Disposer of human Events for frustrating the wicked Machinations of those Persons who meditated the Overthrow of our happy Constitution, we deprecate most deeply those pernicious Principles by which they have been actuated,—Principles at once adverse to the Enjoyment of all rational Liberty, and destructive of the Happiness and Security of Man in civilized Society.

We assure your Majesty that we feel, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, and the most inviolable Attachment to that glorious Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, and its Vicinity, approach your Majesty with Expressions of the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence at the late foul and traitorous Conspiracy of desperate and Evil minded Men against your sacred Person and Government, and with heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of their treasonable Designs.

We trust that the awful and merited Punishment which has befallen the traitorous Leader of a wicked Conspiracy, and the infatuated Companions of his Guilt and Disgrace, will be a solemn Warning to the People of this Land, and that it will teach them that a Deviation from the Paths of Loyalty and Duty, which good Subjects owe to a benevolent Monarch, will inevitably lead them to Punishment the most tremendous.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of Gratitude from the many Blessings we derive from your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we renew our Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the inestimable Constitution of these your Majesty's Dominions; and we shall ever zealously unite in our respective Capacities in Defence of a Blessing which Experience has endeared to us, and in the faithful Support of a Constitution to which we have such peculiar Obligations.

SIRE,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach the Foot of the Throne of your Majesty with the most heartfelt Congratulations on the Failure of the late traitorous Designs, which had for their Object the Destruction of your Royal Person, and thereby the Overthrow of our most excellent Constitution.

Our Abhorrence of such an Attempt can only be expressed by an equal Gratitude to that Providence, who, in Mercy to these Nations, hath preserved the much-valued Life of our beloved Sovereign, under whose mild and paternal Government we have been privileged with those Blessings which it is our earnest Prayer we may long derive from the same Source.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Councilmen, and Burgeesses of the Town of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Councilmen, and Burgeesses of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach you with the renewed Expression of our faithful Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We have beheld with Gratitude your Majesty's unceasing Solitude for the Welfare of your People during a long eventful Reign.

Surrounded by Dangers and Difficulties, unexampled in the Annals of our History, we looked up with Confidence to the Wisdom and Energy of those Counsels, which, by the Blessing of Providence, have hitherto preserved us.

We contemplate with the highest Veneration that Piety and Virtue which so eminently adorn your Throne, diffusing the bright Influence of Example throughout every Corner of your Dominions.

Deeply sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under our beloved Sovereign's paternal Care, we view with Horror, in the late atrocious Conspiracy, a melancholy Instance of the settled Depravity of the human Heart; regardless of the Duties, and unawed by the Authority, of Religion.

Accept, gracious Sire, the Congratulations of unfeigned Joy at your Deliverance from it.

We devoutly offer up our Tribute of Thanksgiving to Almighty God, who thus watches over and protects your Majesty; and we humbly implore of his Goodness that you may long continue to reign over a virtuous and loyal People.

Given under the Common-Seal of this Corporation, this Fifteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Perkins, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Sandwich, the Recorder, and the Members for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Sacred Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Town of Lymington, and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Town of Lymington, and its Neighbourhood, humbly beg Leave, with unfeigned Respect, Duty, and Affection, to approach your Royal Person, and most heartily and sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the fortunate Disclosure, and complete Detection of the most shocking and diabolical Conspiracy, lately entered into by a daring, but we hope, small Band of wicked and bloody-minded Men, who have so justly suffered the Punishment due to their Crimes, and thereby made some Expiation to the violated Laws of their much injured Country, and to express our Joy and Gratitude, that those whose Duty it was, have so well averted the Danger which threatened your Majesty's sacred Person, your Royal House, and the Government of the Country..

We have, Sire, most thankfully witnessed, during your Majesty's long and happy Reign, the Hand of Almighty God providentially protecting a Life most deservedly dear to all good Subjects within the Realm.—To that Power, the Author of all Good, we incessantly call, as we have hitherto always done, with most fervent Prayers that He will still be mindful of us, and that He may continue to shew His Mercy to us in future, by protecting the Life and Interests of our King, our Father, and our best Friend. Interests which we feel and know to be inseparably connected with the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's wise and mild Government, and the best of Constitutions.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH humble Gratitude to Him, whose unsearchable Wisdom not only disappoints but often brings to Shame and Punishment the most artful and secret Machinations of cruel Men, we, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Birmingham, request your Majesty benignly to accept (though Language will but faintly express) our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on the Detection of a Design which the most barbarous of the human Race would contemplate with Abhorrence.

Ever conscious of the inestimable Blessings derived from our most excellent Constitution, fostered and improved under your Majesty's paternal Care, and affording equal Security and Protection to every Member of the Community, we trust that the present Occasion will animate our Vigilance, will invigorate our Diligence in endeavouring to discourage and suppress groundless Complaints and visionary Expectations, and to establish the soundest Principles of Allegiance upon the solid Basis of pure Religion.

That pure Religion at all Times loudly calls upon us to supplicate Him, whose gracious Providence has protected us amidst so many Dangers and Difficulties; that your Majesty's Reign may continue to be prosperous; and that the Happiness we enjoy may descend (with increasing Abundance; if possible) to our latest Posterity.

James Goddington, High Bailiff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Town of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Town of Liverpool, most humbly approach the Throne to tender to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, fully convinced that the diabolical Machinations even of the few, which, through the Interposition of Divine Providence, have again been happily frustrated, serve only to prove more decisively the mischievous Tendency of those pernicious Doctrines and Principles, which are equally destructive of all true and genuine Liberty, and of that real Comfort and Security, which every Class of Society may enjoy under the best of Kings. And we beg Leave most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our determined Resolution to adhere to and support the present glorious Constitution, as by Law established; and which we hope and trust will long continue to flourish under the paternal Auspices and Protection of a Sovereign so truly religious and virtuous, and so highly deserving the unfeigned Regard and inviolable Attachment of a grateful People.

Given under our Common-Seal at Liverpool, the Second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick, deeply and unanimously impressed with a Sense of the great Benefits derived to us, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, from a mild Reign and just Government, under our excellent Constitution, most fervently deprecate every Thing that can endanger the Interruption of such Blessings.

Under these Impressions we beg Leave humbly to declare our unfeigned Joy at the Detection of a Conspiracy so daring and atrocious, as not even to be thought of without Horror, except by those in whom every Sentiment of Religion and Morality is effaced; and we rely on your Majesty's Benignity for accepting this our humble Acknowledgment of the Happiness we enjoy under the auspicious Reign of the best and most gracious of Sovereigns.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order,

Edward Parker, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, beg Leave to approach the Throne with pious Gratitude and joyful Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of a Conspiracy against the Royal Person and Government, as unwarranted and atrocious as ever disgraced the British Annals.

Having long experienced the paternal Care and sacred Love of Justice, which have distinguished your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we must feel extreme Horror and Detestation at any Attempt to deprive us of Advantages so great and inestimable.

Under the special Providence of the Almighty, the base and malignant Designs of a few desperate Traitors have been completely frustrated: In bringing them to condign Punishment, the Strength, Benignity, and impartial Administration of the Law were never more eminently conspicuous. Happily their wicked Machinations have caused the great Mass of the loyal to rally closer round the Throne; to bind stronger the Links of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to excite additional Veneration for that Constitution, which stands erect amidst the Convulsions of Europe, is the great Bulwark of rational Liberty, and an imperishable Record of political Wisdom.

We humbly entreat you, Sire, to be assured that we are from Affection, Duty, Principle, and Conviction unalterably attached to your Majesty's Person and Government. We devoutly wish that your Majesty's Life be extended to the longest Duration; that Tranquillity, Peace, Happiness, and Glory may invariably attend its Progress; that the Virtues of the Royal Mind may never cease to be acknowledged and revered by a free and loyal People, and their Example remembered and followed by your Majesty's latest Posterity.

Done at the Council Chamber of the City of Cork, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Richard Lane, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family; and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late atrocious and diabolical Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government; to the mild and virtuous Influence of which we owe so many inestimable Blessings, and for the Preservation of which we shall ever be found ready zealously to contend against all your Majesty's Enemies.

Deeply sensible of the unceasing and paternal Solitude of your Majesty for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, inviolably attached to our Constitution which we have had for so many Ages such just Cause to venerate; we view the late nefarious Attempt on both with indignant Detestation; and while we lament the Depravity that produced such enormous Guilt, we rejoice in the reasonable Detection of it, in the sober Triumph of impartial Justice, and in the prompt and due Execution of the Law.

Your Majesty, enthroned in the Hearts of a brave and free People, has nothing to apprehend from open Violence. And may that Providence who has hitherto manifested to your Majesty and the United Kingdom a peculiar Grace and Favour of Protection, be still your Safeguard and Succour; and when, after a long and prosperous Reign, it shall please Him to call you to your high Reward, may your Majesty's august Family continue to rule this great and flourishing Empire with new Accessions of Glory to the latest Posterity.

Signed on Behalf of the Freeholders, Rob. De La Cour, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude to God, and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the late providential Detection and Overthrow of the Designs of those wicked and infatuated Traitors, who, conspiring with the Enemies of our Constitution and Government, sought the utter Destruction of both without even sparing your Majesty's most sacred and invaluable Life.

Whilst we join in the general Voice of our Fellow-Subjects in declaring our utter Abhorrence of all such traitorous and detestable Proceedings, we cannot but applaud the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Councils in detecting and bringing the Authors of them to exemplary Punishment, which, we trust, through Divine Providence, will be the Means not only of frustrating the present Hopes and Designs of our Enemies, and preventing the future Attempts of those who seek to disturb the Tranquillity of our Country, and to destroy our happy Constitution and Liberties, but of establishing more firmly, if possible, your Majesty's Throne and Government in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and prosperous People.

Permit us, Sire, to add our Prayers to the great Sovereign of the Universe, that a Life so dear to us as that of your Majesty may long be preserved; and that the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy in the wise Administration of our Laws, and the Exercise of our Liberties, may, under the Protection of your Royal House, be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough this Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

W. Servant, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of affectionate Regard to your Majesty for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and sensible of the invaluable Benefits we derive from our excellent Constitution, we beheld with Horror and Detestation the base and nefarious Plan for involving in one common Destruction the Objects of our dearest Interest, the Life of our Gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

Anxious for the Welfare and Security of our Country, which is most closely connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and ardent Affection to your Majesty's Person; and we hope that the People of these Realms, living under your Majesty's parental Care, may long possess the Comforts and Blessings they have hitherto enjoyed.

Signed in Presence of and by the Appointment of the Meeting, James Clerk, Preses.
Edinburgh, March 15, 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, to unite with a free and grateful People in the most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late signal Escape from a daring and most atrocious Conspiracy, levelled against your Majesty's sacred Life and our invaluable Constitution; and do declare that we view with Horror and Detestation the diabolical Machinations that were lately so wickedly and deliberately planned to overwhelm the whole Nation in Ruin and Destruction.

May the powerful Hand of the Almighty, which has guided your Majesty securely through Circumstances of unparalleled Danger, continue to discover and defeat every hostile Attempt. Nor can we doubt, from our recent Experience of the Divine Goodness, that the same gracious Protection will still be extended to your Majesty's Person and to your Royal Family.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Corporation of New Romney, this Twelfth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery, and effectual Suppression, of the late horrid Conspiracy, which aimed at the Safety of your Royal Person, threatened the Subversion of our excellent Constitution, and involved in its Consequences the Property and Existence of every Friend of social Order and legal Subordination. Inviolably attached to the revered Liberty and Security of this happy Country, and deeply sensible of the Blessings we have abundantly experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot, without the strongest Sentiments of Abhorrence, contemplate the treasonable Designs and atrocious Purposes of those wretched Men, who would have deprived us of these inestimable Benefits. We acknowledge with grateful Hearts the protecting Hand of that Providence which has hitherto watched over your Majesty, and so signally preserved your invaluable Life in the Hour of Danger.

And we ardently pray that your Majesty may still continue the peculiar Care of Heaven; and that your illustrious Reign may be long extended over a loyal, a free, and united People.

Signed on Behalf of the Inhabitants of Manchester and Salford, and their Neighbourhood, pursuant to the Resolutions of a public Meeting held the Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Sam. Smith, Boroughreeve of Manchester.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bolton-le-Moors and its Vicinity, anxious to join in the Congratulations of your faithful People upon the Discovery of a late most alarming Conspiracy, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and the Government of this Kingdom; with Expressions of our deep Abhorrence of that Guilt which would destroy the Security of both; and with the liveliest Gratitude to the Almighty for this and other Instances of his gracious Interposition in the Hour of Danger.

When it was the natural Wish of Britons, upon the Close of an arduous Contest, maintained with unfulfilled Glory, to enjoy and to improve the Blessing of Peace, we have Reason to lament that Principles, avowedly hostile to our Welfare and Existence, should still have been entertained, and have ripened into a Design of such atrocious Cruelty and such extensive Ruin. After the Miseries occasioned in other Countries by political Change and Confusion, after their vain Efforts to build a Fabric of Law and Liberty more perfect than ours, we are impressed with Astonishment as well as Indignation in retracing those Schemes of Self-Deception and Wickedness, which would waste through general Slaughter to accomplish them. But we are particularly penetrated with Horror to hear of Men unaffected by the paternal Cares and mild Virtues of their Sovereign, unconvinced by the independent Patriotism of our public Councils, and boldly provoking the reluctant Severity of National Justice. While we feel for the Fate of such infatuated Beings, we cannot but turn with heartfelt Thankfulness to the Zeal and Assiduity of those who have seasonably prevented their nefarious Purpose; and we contemplate, with an Exultation only experienced by your Majesty's Subjects, the Candour, the Equity, and the Mercy of a British Judicature.

That the King of Kings, and the Almighty Disposer of Events, may thus frustrate every impious Attempt upon your Majesty's Safety, and the Safety of your august Family; that the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution may continue unimpaired and uncorrupted; that Loyalty, Liberty, and Virtue may ever inspire our united Endeavours to promote the Prosperity of this Kingdom, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bolton-le-Moors and its Vicinity.

Signed in Behalf of the Inhabitants of the said Town of Bolton and its Vicinity, by John Pilkington, Boroughreeve, Chairman.

[Presented by John Blackburn, Esq; and Colonel Stanley, Members for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, hasten to express our unfeigned Joy on the timely Detection and Discomfiture of the traitorous Designs of those deluded Men, who dared to conspire against the most sacred Person of your Majesty, and the revered Constitution over which you preside.

The Principles of false Liberty, in which this foul Conspiracy originated, we hold in the utmost Detestation; convinced that if ever they should prevail in these Kingdoms, they would bring with them the certain Overthrow of all Ranks and Distinctions, and of all social Order and good Government.

From these dreadful Evils may the Wisdom, Vigilance, and Energy of your Majesty's Councils still preserve us: And may that Divine Providence, which has never forsaken our beloved Sovereign in the Hour of Danger, continue to watch over his Safety, and extend to a yet distant Period his mild and auspicious Reign over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge and Evan Baillie, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Town of Stirling, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Discovery and Disappointment of the late nefarious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Constitution of these Kingdoms.

While we view such Attempts with the utmost Horror and Indignation, we desire to offer our warmest Gratitude to that benign Providence which, in the whole Course of your Majesty's eventful Reign, has been pleased to interpose so often in Behalf of your Majesty and the Nation, and amidst a Sea of Troubles has placed us in a State of Peace and Security, the Envy and Admiration of Mankind.

We embrace with great Satisfaction the present Opportunity of repeating our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our earnest Wishes that your Majesty may be long preserved for a Blessing to these Lands.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at the Town-House of Stirling, this Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, John Glas, Provost.

[Presented by the Honorable Captain Cochrane, of the Royal Navy, Member for the said Burgh]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Youghall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town of Youghall, impressed with the purest and most unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late desperate Attempt on your Majesty's Life: And to assure your Majesty, that, though great and extensive as has so justly been the Joy through every Part of the United Empire on the happy Detection and Punishment of such diabolical Treason, in no Part of your Dominions has it been felt with Sentiments of more zealous and ardent Loyalty than by your Majesty's Subjects of this Town.

Whilst we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Detestation of so horrid a Conspiracy, which had for its Object the Subversion of our happy Constitution by the Destruction of a Life so inseparably connected with it, and so deservedly dear to your Subjects, we cannot too thankfully express our Gratitude to the Divine Mercy for this signal Interference in frustrating so diabolical a Machination; and we pray to the Almighty that your Majesty's Life may be long and happy, and that you may long continue to live in the Hearts and Affections of a People deeply sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and virtuous Reign.

Signed, by Order,

William Jenkins, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and other Inhabitants of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and other Inhabitants of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most loyal and unfeigned Congratulations, that, through the merciful Protection of Divine Providence, your Majesty's invaluable Life has been preserved from the execrable Designs of the late traitorous Conspirators.

Whilst the Recollection of their meditated Attempts fills our Minds with Detestation and Abhorrence, we feel astonished that one Heart so hard, or one Hand so daring, could be found in your Majesty's Dominions, as to aim at the Life of a Sovereign, no less endeared to his Subjects by his Piety and paternal Solitude for their Welfare, than by his zealous Regard for their Liberties and National Honor, yet we trust that the same Almighty Hand, which has been heretofore so visibly and often extended to the Protection of good and godly Kings, will long preserve to us your Majesty in undiminished Health and Prosperity.

Signed, on Behalf of the Meeting,

Edward Tucker Steward, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Limerick, at Lent Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with those Sentiments of Veneration which we always feel, but which, in consequence of the dreadful Conspiracy lately formed in England against your sacred Person, we cannot now refrain from expressing.

Convinced, as we are, of the Blessings of your mild and liberal Reign, we consider the Happiness of your Subjects connected with your Preservation; and while we now zealously congratulate your Majesty on your happy Escape, we are sensible that we substantially congratulate every Member of your Dominions.

In gratefully acknowledging the numerous Benefits conferred on this Country by your Majesty's paternal Care, we humbly hope it may not be improper to specify as one, the Nobleman whom you have in your Wisdom selected for the immediate Government of this Part of your United Empire, the salutary Effects of whose Councils have been generally felt, but most particularly in this County.

And we further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to devote our Lives and Properties to the Defence of your Majesty's most sacred Person, so deservedly dear to us, and to the Support of that Constitution under which we enjoy such unexampled Blessings.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Subjects, the Commander in Chief, the Bailiffs, and the Jurats, and Officers of the Royal Court, and the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, as well in their own Names, as in Behalf of the other Inhabitants of your said Island, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty their most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late most atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, formed by a nefarious Band of daring and execrable Traitors; by the Detection of which detestable Plot, your Majesty's precious Life and your Government have been preserved. Impressed with the liveliest Joy, we offer our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for that Divine Interposition in preserving a Life and Government so justly dear all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

Animated by the warmest Zeal and the most lively Sense of the Blessings we enjoy, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majesty's gracious and benign Government, we ardently pray the Almighty to guard your Majesty from every Danger, and that your Majesty may long, very long continue the Blessing of your faithful People, is also the fervent Prayer of,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most respectful and cordial Congratulations upon the Discovery and Conviction of a small Body of desperate Men, whose treasonable Machinations were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person.

In the Detection of this detestable Conspiracy we contemplate a striking Display of the Wisdom and Justice of Divine Providence, which brings secret Wickedness to Light, and often employs the extreme Folly of those who conduct Schemes pregnant with extensive Mischief as the instrument of rescuing Society from the Effects of their Malice. We bless the Ruler of Nations for this fresh Instance of his Favour to the British Empire: And we unite with all Orders of our Fellow-Subjects in the most fervent Wishes and Prayers that the Protection of Heaven may continue to guard the Life of a Sovereign who is endeared to a free People by maintaining a sacred Regard to their Rights, and by exhibiting in his exalted Station a bright Example of every Virtue.

To the KING,

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Vice-Chancellor, Principal, and Professors of your University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, humbly approach your Throne to express our Joy in your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. While we abhor the atrocious Wickedness of the Plot, we feel great Satisfaction in reflecting that it was confined to a few worthless and desperate Individuals, and that the great Body of the Nation, recollecting the Protection which the Constitution afforded them during a late Period of unexampled Turbulence and Faction, are at present, if possible, more firmly attached to it than at any former Period of our History. Deeply sensible that your Majesty, during a long and auspicious Reign, has ever been the Friend of rational Liberty, and the Patron of Religion and Learning, it is our most earnest Prayer that a Life so inestimable to the Country may be long preserved for the Advancement of its dearest Interests.

Done in Senate this Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three; and signed in our Name and by our Appointment, by Arch. Davidson, Vice-Chancellor.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Masters of your Royal College of Eton, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most-sacred Person and Government.

We cannot sufficiently express our Horror and Indignation at such a nefarious Attempt; the ultimate View of which was the utter Subversion of our excellent Constitution, both civil and religious; a Constitution which your Majesty, on the most conscientious Principles, and with invincible Firmness, has always maintained inviolate both in Church and State.

We therefore think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that we will exert the utmost Diligence and Attention in the Instruction of the Youth committed to our Care, that they may imbibe the purest Principles not only of Religion, Virtue, and Learning, but also of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, being early taught to fear God and to honor the King.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events, the Hope and Strength of all good Kings, vouchsafe still to preserve, in Mercy to this Nation, your Majesty's invaluable Life; and grant that, undisturbed by any more such traitorous Machinations, your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, obeyed, honored, and beloved by a loyal, united, and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our Expression of the strong Sense of Indignation and Abhorrence with which we regard the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government; and of the grateful Acknowledgments we owe to Divine Providence, which in this, as in all similar Attempts, has so conspicuously interposed to guard your Majesty's sacred Person from Violence and Treachery, and preserve to us and our Fellow-Subjects the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's truly paternal Government, and the salutary Influence of your Royal Virtues.

While we feel the deepest Horror and Astonishment at finding any of your Majesty's Subjects so depraved as to enter into so base a Conspiracy against such a Sovereign, and endeavour to plunge their Country into all the Miseries of Anarchy and Rebellion in the midst of general Prosperity, and the full Enjoyment of civil and religious Freedom, we yet feel some Consolation on reflecting that such Treason could find no Abettors except among Men of the most worthless Character, and callous to every Feeling of Humanity, while your Majesty's other Subjects, united in Affection to your Royal Person, and Loyalty to your Government, exhibit a decisive Proof how firmly fixed is that Throne which is reared on the Basis of Virtue, and how powerfully those Kings are guarded who reign in the Hearts of a free People.

Permit us, Sir, to add, that, as Members of an University honored by your Majesty's uniform Protection and paternal Regard, we cannot but feel peculiar Anxiety for your Majesty's Safety and Happiness; and fervently implore that Supreme Being, who controuls the Issues of all Events, to bless your Majesty with the long Continuance of a glorious Reign over an united and grateful People, and transmit your Virtues, with your Crown, to your Royal Posterity, and thus insure the permanent Happiness of your extended Dominions.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Seal to be hereto affixed, this Eighteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirce.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity, Dublin, commonly called Christ Church, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late gracious Interference of Providence for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government from the desperate Designs of Traitors to the Peace and Welfare of their Country. We acknowledge with Gratitude this signal Mark of Divine Favour in the present Instance, at a Time when the general Appearance of Content and Satisfaction might have induced a fatal Security, when it was the common Belief that frequent Defeats had crushed the Hopes of the disaffected, and useful Lessons had not been wanting to teach them the Wisdom of a peaceful Acquiescence under a Form of Government mild enough to engage the Affection of the Good, and strong enough to enforce the Submission of the wicked.

We confidently hope that the many excellent Qualities which distinguish your Majesty's Reign will secure to your Majesty the same powerful Defence which has hitherto disappointed the evil Designs of external and domestic Enemies; and that all such perverse Spirits as cannot love those Virtues which endear your Majesty to every honest Heart in these Dominions, may at least learn to fear the Vengeance of that Almighty Protector, who, in Mercy to their Subjects, establishes and supports the Thrones of good and gracious Sovereigns.

George Lewis Kildare, Dean.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgesses, and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to offer our dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the traitorous Designs of wicked and disloyal Men.

Regarding with just Abhorrence and Indignation the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government, we contemplate with heartfelt Gratitude the Dispensation of his Providence whose gracious Interposition has averted a Blow so fatal to the Interests and Happiness of your Majesty's Dominions, and preserved our Country from the Horrors of sanguinary and tumultuous Violence.

We sincerely lament that there should have been found amongst any Description of your Majesty's Subjects, Men, whose depraved and licentious Principles could urge them to gratify the Malignity of their Hearts by attempting to subvert the most perfect System of rational Liberty which ever stood recorded in the Annals of Human Wisdom; but we rejoice in the certain Assurance that the great Body of the People of this United Kingdom remain unshaken in their Attachment to the Person of their Sovereign, and justly appreciate the Blessings which they enjoy under the Laws and Constitution of their Ancestors.

Among the greatest of these Blessings we esteem the peculiar Excellence of our juridical Constitution, wherein a mild and impartial Administration of criminal Justice, alike conducive to the Protection of Innocence, and the Preservation of civil Liberty, is happily combined with that Vigour and Energy which alone can ensure the Stability of public Happiness by the Suppression and Punishment of Disloyalty and Treason.

Deeply sensible that our constitutional Privileges are inseparably interwoven with the Security of your Majesty's Government, we avail ourselves of the present Opportunity to renew our Protestations of dutiful Allegiance; and we trust that, in declaring our steadfast Resolution upon all Occasions, with our Lives and Property, to defend your Majesty's sacred Person, your Crown and Dignity, we express the universal Sentiment of your loyal and affectionate People.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Hervey and Lord Charles Fitzroy, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

By the KING.

St. James's, March 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Heritors, Justices of Peace, Gentlemen, and others of the County of Bute, met at Rothefay the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude to Divine Providence, and to offer your Majesty our most respectful Congratulations on your late happy Escape from the dreadful Machinations of a Set of desperate and deluded Traitors, who aimed at depriving us of the most virtuous Sovereign that ever adorned a Throne; and who, had it been possible for them to carry their atrocious Purposes into Effect, by dissolving a Constitution the most perfect that can be shewn by any Nation or Country under Heaven, would have introduced Anarchy, Massacre, and Ruin in place of that noble Fabric, which assures equal Justice to all Ranks of Society, and has enabled the British Empire to rise to a State of envied Greatness.

From the awful Warning they have now had, we hope the Factious, urged by Ambition, or corrupted by revolutionary Doctrines, will be restrained from meditating such execrable Designs in future; and that they may ever be disappointed in their Attempts to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's illustrious Reign, is our sincere and most ardent Wish.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting,
Alex. May, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Denbigh, assembled in the Shire-Hall of the County this Nineteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Advertisement from the High Sheriff, most humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Joy and most cordial Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of a most daring and atrocious Conspiracy avowedly entered into for the horrid and unnatural Purpose of taking away the sacred Life of your Majesty, and forcibly overturning the Constituted Authorities of the British Empire, the Sceptre of which, for more than Forty Years, your Majesty has swayed with that exemplary Purity and Mildness so peculiar to your Majesty's august Family, to the Maintenance of Religion and good Order, the due Administration of Justice highly tempered with Mercy, and the Protection of Property and practical Liberty; truly sensible of the Extent and Benefit of these numerous Blessings, exclusively enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects during the Periods of Anarchy and Devastation in most of the European States, we are the more grateful for your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Machinations of those unprincipled Traitors; and we do most humbly implore the Great Disposer of Events effectually to shield the sacred Person and Life of your Majesty from future Dangers; and of his Goodness grant that the Evening of your Majesty's Life may be tranquil and happy.

By Order of the Meeting,
Henry Ellis Boates, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late most flagitious and traitorous Designs upon the invaluable Life of our truly beloved Sovereign, and the Destruction of that Constitution which has been the Pride and Glory of Britons, and the Envy of surrounding Nations. Inhabitants of a distant Northern District, where nothing but Loyalty and a sacred Veneration for that Constitution, so happily prevails; where Treason dare never rear its Head; and where its Voice is not heard, we could not behold, without Sentiments of the greatest Surprise, Indignation, and Abhorrence, an Attempt to destroy that Happiness which all have experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. Our Trust and Confidence however is, that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the Projectors of so foul a Deed will convince all Ranks of that Protection which our happy Establishment affords against every Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity; and the Disaffected, that Treason, or an Attempt to commit it, can never escape without Detection and Punishment.

That your Majesty may long enjoy that Quiet and Happiness, which it has been the Business of your Life to afford all your Subjects, is our most earnest Desire and Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting at Nairn, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Hugh Rose, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person from the wicked and traitorous Attempts of atrocious and desperate Conspirators, whose Plots were directed to the Destruction of your Royal Person and Government, and the Overthrow of our happy Constitution.

We implore the Almighty to grant his Divine Protection to your Majesty and your illustrious Family; and to continue to us the Blessings of our excellent Constitution unimpaired and uninterrupted by the Machinations of any foreign Enemy, or the traitorous Attempts of domestic Foes.

[Presented by Lord Proby and the Right Honorable Thomas Grenville, Representatives for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Rothefay, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Detection and Failure of the late treasonable and dangerous Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and intended to overturn the Government and Constitution.

Blessed with equal Laws, and such an admirable Form of Government, as has enabled this Kingdom to rank so high among the Nations of Europe, we reflect with Horror on the atrocious and frantic Attempt of those Traitors, who could conceive the Perpetration of an Act of Criminality so great; and our Indignation at their diabolical Machinations is augmented when we reflect on the many amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, and the benign Influence of your Majesty's Administration of the great and eminent Powers entrusted to you by our well-regulated and happy Constitution, which has been constantly and uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and the Honor of the Kingdom.

May that good Providence, which has heretofore interposed to preserve your Majesty's valuable Life against the Machinations of wicked and deluded Persons, continue to long protect it as a public Blessing, is the ardent Prayer of.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Rothefay.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Chief Resident Magistrate.

To the KING,

The Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Ancient Borough of Inverness.

SIRE,

WITH the warmest Feelings of Gratitude for the Goodness of Providence in bestowing on this Empire the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we eagerly embrace the Opportunity of joining the united Voice of all your Majesty's loyal and well-disposed Subjects, in offering our sincere and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the fortunate Discovery and Prevention of the wicked and traitorous Designs of a few desperate and unprincipled Men, the most despicable of your People, against our beloved Sovereign, and the Happiness, Liberty, and Security we are blessed with under his mild and paternal Government.

We earnestly pray Almighty God long to preserve the Life and Health of our King, to shield him with His Protection, and to defend him and our invaluable Constitution from the evil Purposes and Machinations of foreign or domestic Enemies.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council of Inverness.

John Mackintosh, Provost.

Town-Hall, Inverness, March 14, 1803.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence, to express our utter Abhorrence of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most cordial Congratulations on its providential Detection and Overthrow.

May the awful Punishment which was deservedly inflicted upon its Authors, together with a just Sense of your Majesty's distinguished Virtues, and of the invaluable Privileges which we and our Fellow-Subjects have so long enjoyed, contribute to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and to the future Quiet of the Empire.

Permit us, on this Occasion, to renew our Assurances of affectionate Regard to your illustrious

House, and our unalterable Attachment to the venerable and excellent Constitution of our Country.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it will be our zealous Endeavour, so far as the Influence of our Exhortations and Example may extend, to promote a solicitous Attention to the Safety of your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Submission to legal Authority, and an ardent Concern for the general Interests of Virtue and Religion.

Animated with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, we commend your Majesty to the continued Protection and Favor of Providence, earnestly praying that you may yet, for many Years, wield the Sceptre over a free, united, and flourishing People; and that when, at length, by Divine Appointment, you lay aside an Earthly Crown, you may receive from the King of Kings, that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

[Presented by the Rev. Samuel Palmer.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Corporation, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, beg humbly to address our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, on the Detection and Punishment of the late wicked Conspirators against your Person and Government.

Fully sensible of the real Liberty we enjoy under our most invaluable Constitution, we consider an Attempt to subvert the established Order as a Blow aimed directly against ourselves, our Families, and the whole Body of the People; whilst, at the same Time, we look up with Confidence to a Continuance of every Blessing under your Majesty's truly paternal Government, and in the Preservation of that Life which it is our constant Prayer may be spared for a Length of Years, to the Honor and Welfare of these Kingdoms, and the Happiness and Security of all your Majesty's Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three. Geo. Coler, Mayor.
